

REBEL TROOPS ENTER BRITISH CONSULATE

Constitutionalists Forcibly Seize Luis Terrazas, Jr., During Vice-Consul's Absence

MINISTERS JOIN IN PROTEST

All Foreign Ministers at Chihuahua Have Joined in Protest of Violation of Rights of Asylum Under a Foreign Flag

REBELS DEMANDED $250,000

JUAREZ, Mex., Dec. 11.—Americans who arrived tonight from Chihuahua reported that the rebels, since their occupation of that city had entered the British vice-consulate and forcibly seized Luis Terrazas, Jr., a son of a wealthy land owner and after carrying him through the streets placed him in jail.

According to the Americans, the rebels also served notice upon 100 Spanish residents of Chihuahua that they must leave the city within ten hours.

The entry of the British consulate and the seizure of Terrazas who had gone there for protection after hearing that his life was in danger, were reported to have occurred during the absence of British Vice-consul Scobel.

It is said that Scobel, enraged at the action of General Francisco Villa's army was denied facilities to protest to the British minister at Mexico City or to the British ambassador at Washington and that he then appealed to United States Consul Marion Letcher.

All the foreign ministers are said to have joined in a protest in what was regarded as a violation of rights of asylum under a foreign flag. The story told by the Americans was that Terrazas, who had been in charge of much of his father's vast estate, including great cattle ranges, had been left in Chihuahua after the evacuation by the rebels to look after women and children members of his family. That taking fright he went to the British vice-consulate and that during the absence of Vice-consul Scobel the rebels, who had been searching the town rushed into the consulate, seized Terrazas and then paraded the prisoner through the streets afterwards locking him in a cell in a prison in the state building. It was said that a demand for $250,000, which he failed to pay was the chief motive in the arrest of Terrazas.

Luis Terrazas, Sr., the aged father of the prisoner recently arrived at Ojinaga with the federal troops. His great wealth has been a special mark for discussion in the propaganda of the revolution, while the thousands of his cattle over the state have served to feed both rebels and federales.

United States Consul Edwards at Juarez said he had received no official confirmation of the arrest of Terrazas up to a late hour tonight. The telegraph between Juarez and Chihuahua was not working.

At 2 o'clock the Troy fire department was called on for assistance and several companies responded. The flames spread to several buildings across the street.

A block of tenements on Factory street were threatened and the firemen made desperate efforts to save them, with but little assurances of success.

People residing in the neighborhood removed their effects.

FIELDS IS FOUND GUILTY OF MURDER

JURY FIXES PUNISHMENT AT TWENTY YEARS IN PENITENTIARY

Prisoner is convicted of the murder of Dr. Gordon in Cairo last September—Defense sought to prove insanity caused by stories concerning Fields' wife.

CAIRO, Ill., Dec. 11.—After three hours deliberation a jury to-night found Harvey R. Fields guilty of the murder of Dr. E. G. Gordon, and fixed his punishment at twenty years in the penitentiary.

Fields shot Dr. Gordon as the latter was leaving a hospital on September 1, 1913.

The plea of the defense was that Fields' mind had become deranged by stories of the alleged abuse of his wife by Dr. Gordon.

While attorneys for the state this afternoon pictured Fields as a coldblooded assassin, the defendant sat unmoved, but with pale face. His wife sat weeping by his side.

Attorneys for the defense argued that the conduct of the physician toward Fields' wife and mother had made the defendant insane; that he did the shooting while in that state and that he is yet of unsound mind. Two negroes were members of the jury which tried Fields.

SHERIFF UNDECIDED ON HOW TO BRING MAN HUNT TO END

Many now believe Lopez has either escaped or is asphyxiated.

BINGHAM, Utah, Dec. 11.—With various plans under consideration the sheriffs who have conducted the pursuit of Ralph Lopez since November 21st, remained undecided tonight on how to bring the man hunt to an end.

The Utah Apex mine where the slayer of six men took refuge on Nov. 27th, was penetrated a considerable distance tonight by four citizens they being the first to undertake this hazard since Monday when all deputies were ordered outside.

The desperado has not been seen or heard since Dec. 1st, when the mine was filled with poisonous gases. This fact is tending to strengthen the belief that he either has escaped or was asphyxiated.

It is expected that the sheriffs will accept this supposition shortly and resume their search in the labyrinth beneath the mountain.

PROHIBITIONISTS CHEER REP. HOBSON

Alabama Pleads For Resolution to Submit Prohibition Amendment to the States

Club Owners Favor New Method of Holding Annual Drafting of Players—Will Hold Schedule Meeting Feb. 9—No Deal Made for Tinker.

INJECTS PERSONAL POLITICS

Hobson's Injection of Personal Politics Into the Situation Brings Majority Leader Underwood to His Feet With Reply

NOT CANDIDATE OF ANY INTEREST

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Champions of prohibition who packed the galleries late today, broke into repeated outbursts of applause as Representative Richmond Pierson Hobson of Alabama, pleaded for a resolution which would submit a constitutional prohibition amendment to the states.

The demonstration continued unrestrained for many minutes as Mr. Hobson proceeded to discuss the prohibition question and was not checked until the speaker had drawn into controversy his colleagues, Representative Underwood, who is now engaged with him in a race for the senate on other issues.

CHALLENGES HOBSON'S STATEMENT.

"The rules of this house," said Representative Mann emphatically, "have always been that there should be no applause from the galleries. Those in the galleries who are making their demonstrations, as good citizens should observe that rule."

"In cannot sit here in silence," said Mr. Underwood, after quiet had been restored, "and allow my colleagues to assert that I am the candidate of any interest, without challenging his statement. I am not, never have been and do not intend to be the candidate of the liquor interests. I have asked the people of my state to elect me to the senate on other issues."

Mr. Hobson concluded his speech by declaring he came with a petition sanctioned by a majority of the American people demanding a referendum on the liquor question.

ATTACKS HOBSON'S ARGUMENT.

When the Alabama had taken his seat, Representative Bartholdi of Missouri, suggested that Mr. Hobson had packed the galleries with a multitude of his adherents and that he (Bartholdi) could bring "two million German-Americans to Washington for intimidation but he did not think it was a healthy thing to do anything of that sort."

He attacked Mr. Hobson's argument and said that "sobriety and temperance are not identical with prohibition," as Mr. Hobson had said, but that prohibition "is an attempt to make a man sober by law."

"The Creator himself put temptation in the Garden of Eden and its been there ever since," concluded Mr. Bartholdi, after saying that the one he respected was the one who could resist temptation. "Abolish temptation? Why, you'd have to abolish women."

The prohibition delegates then left the galleries.

DEMURRER IS FILED TO SUIT AGAINST NEW SUFFRAGE LAW

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—A demurrer was filed today in the suit brought to enjoin the board of election commissioners from carrying out the women's suffrage act. The demurrer charged that the suit is ambiguous and deals with matters of a political nature to which the alleged property rights are merely incidental and therefore should be dismissed.

Do you know that W. D. Cody sells the best and highest quality flour in Jacksonville and that the name of that flour is Zephyr! Zephyr!

To prove this statement we point to the record made at the state fair baking contest in Springfield. The winners in this bread show were:

First Prize (sweepstakes) Mrs. A. A. Johnson, 1313 South 10th St., Springfield.

Second Prize (sweepstakes) Mrs. C. H. ones, 119 Bond ave., Springfield. Zephyr flour thus won both first and second prizes over bread from twenty other brands of flour. The loaves displayed were baked from twenty-two brands in addition to Zephyr, some of the best known and most advertised brands on the market today like Seal of Minnesota, Gold Medal, Pillsbury, Ceresota, Occident, Aristos and Snow White. It was easily shown that Zephyr flour had no equal among them.

Why not pay cash and get the highest quality flour here at a saving of 25 cents to 45 cents per sack.

THE JACKSONVILLE JOURNAL

Established 1843

Published by JACKSONVILLE JOURNAL CO.

LET JACKSONVILLE

KEEP HER OWN

And again the Journal calls attention to the fact that the voter who casts a ballot in the coming election should do so advisedly, that is after becoming acquainted with all the facts in the case. Mere prejudices or opinions which are not formed after making thorough investigation should not rule. The question at issue which is in effect the retention of the municipal light plant should not be settled without a full understanding of all the issues involved. The case should be decided upon its merits and not upon the opinion, or estimate, the voter may place upon any man or any administration.

As a matter of fact the Journal believes that a citizen who with unbiased mind looks into the conduct of the city's business during the present administration will find that the business has been honestly and economically conducted. The Journal believes that such an investigator will find that the city today is in better financial condition than it has been at any corresponding date in recent years.

But while a discussion of the various members of the city council, and of the administration, may be interesting the Journal again wishes to emphasize that in this instance the city administration is not on trial. The people of the city of Jacksonville elected its present officers; if the people are dissatisfied with the conduct of city affairs the law places a remedy readily within their grasp.

Now, however, a question of far more importance than city officers or administrations confronts the people and that question is whether or not they shall surrender their city electric light plant and the valuable privileges its possession includes and then go into the market and purchase light and power from a local utility company. The question is whether it would be better for the city to retain the valuable rights that it now has, to use the same in enlarging and building up the city, or whether it shall surrender the lighting privilege and place itself in a position to be dictated to by a corporation. This corporation which by its existence has offered many conveniences to Jacksonville, and which is today managed by courteous and efficient officers is nevertheless a corporation which is today doing business without legal life, and has for years been doing business in the city reaping rich rewards. Not satisfied with the lucrative business which it has handled through the years, in part openly, and in part covertly, the corporation is now seeking to take over the city lighting business and to bring it about that the municipal plant shall go out of business. To get the municipal plant out of business, to obliterate it absolutely as a possibility in the field of commercial lighting is what the Jacksonville Railway and Light company is now seeking to do. To accomplish this fact would mean far more to the company than the mere earnings from the sale of light to the city and would add very largely to the value of their local holdings.

LET'S GET AT THE FACTS.

And this looks like a fair proposition doesn't it? Commissioner Brennan, who is at the head of the light and water departments of the city, has presented various figures relative to the costs of municipal lighting and has made various statements on this subject. Recently in a public meeting Mr. Brennan suggested that a committee of five or six business men be appointed by the people at large to go down to the city hall and check over his figures and the accounts and books of the city and to see if the records there do not in every instance back up and sustain the statements made.

Publicity and investigation is what Mr. Brennan is asking and advising and a citizen who doubts the wisdom of keeping the municipal plant in operation and who believes that the plant has been extravagantly managed and that it has cost far more to operate than the figures given indicate should in all justice to himself and to the city investigate

this whole problem carefully before definitely making up his mind how his vote shall be cast in the coming election. This action is clearly the duty of every man, or woman voter for the welfare of the general public and a good deal of the future of Jacksonville is involved in that decision.

DISCUSSES MUNICIPAL TAXATION BEFORE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

John Z. White of Chicago Explains Single Tax at Good Fellowship Dinner—Notable Railroad Officials Present.

One of the most enthusiastic luncheons ever held by the Chamber of Commerce took place Thursday at the Dunlap hotel. At 6:30 sixty-five business men and guests sat down to an excellent dinner after which a number of toasts were given, by representatives of the railroads passing through the city. John Z. White of Chicago, the principal speaker, was introduced by the chairman, Frank H. Bode, of the Jenkins-Bode Co., who acted as toastmaster. Mr. White is a lecturer of the National Henry George association and is an authority on the single tax, municipal government and municipal ownership.

Railroad Men Present.

The guests present included T. H. Pinell of Springfield, superintendent of the C. P. & St. L.; W. A. LaLor of St. Louis, general passenger agent of the C. B. & Q.; B. C. Frederic of Springfield, superintendent of transportation of the C. P. & St. L.; C. S. Branch of Springfield, superintendent of the mechanical department of the C. P. & St. L.; C. E. Brown of Springfield, division superintendent of the Wabash; S. A. Hess of Decatur, division passenger agent of the Wabash; W. M. Rene of Burlington, Ia., division passenger agent of the C. B. & Q.; C. W. Galligan of Chicago, general freight agent of the C. & A.; B. J. Libe, general agent of the C. & A. in Chicago; James Mann of Springfield, division freight agent of the C. & A.; Charles W. Russell of Virginia and C. H. Barber of Chicago Association of Commerce.

Mr. Barber, the first speaker, told of the new civic spirit in his home city and spoke of the regard with which Jacksonville is there held. The railroad officials who spoke were Messrs. LaLor, Galligan, Brown and Frederic.

J. J. Reeve, vice president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided and introduced the toastmaster. The evening was concluded by all present singing "Illinois" after which the company went to inspect the Made in Jacksonville show in a special car provided by W. B. Miser, superintendent of the Railway & Light Co.

"The Relation of Taxation to Community Development," the subject taken by Mr. White, was a clear, direct discussion of the various modes of raising city revenue and the relation of taxation to civic prosperity. Taxation, he said, has more to do with the welfare of a state or nation almost than any single factor. As Alexander Hamilton said there are but two methods by which taxes may be raised, "You must tax the values of land, or you must tax industry."

The great opportunity for Jacksonville, Mr. White said, is to adopt this method of taxation before nearby cities. In this way industries will be attracted here, vacant land will be improved and an era of prosperity will begin.

NATIONAL CIVIC FEDERATION HOLDS NATIONAL MEETING

Fourteenth Annual Convention Begins in New York—Prominent Citizens Listed Among Delegates.

New York, Dec. 11.—Several hundred men of national prominence, including eminent financiers, leaders of organized labor, churchmen, educators, manufacturers and railroad presidents, met at the Hotel Astor today for the fourteenth annual meeting of the National Civic Federation.

The federation brought them together to discuss sociological and other questions of much public importance, chief among which is a proposal that national interstate trade commission, fashioned along the lines of the interstate commerce commission, should be formed to deal with problems arising from large industrial corporations.

Many other important subjects will come up for consideration in the form of committee reports which will be submitted to the federation to be thoroughly discussed. The National Civic Federation is divided into a number of branches, each of which has its standing and special committees. All matters of public interest that arise from time to time are referred to the proper section and by that section referred to a committee for report.

The department of workmen's compensation, for instance, has a commission of six members to investigate the operation of various workmen's compensation laws.

The commission visited a number of states, collected information from 25,000 employers and workmen and complied an extensive report, based upon the information thus gained, which will be submitted to the federation for consideration. It is estimated that there are now four million workingmen and women in the United States having the legal right to be compensated if injured in industry. The report of the commission will indicate various problems which have arisen in connection with the compensation laws.

The obtaining of pure food and drugs for the American people is another highly important question which will come up for consideration. Representatives of the department of agriculture, of labor and in-ustrial organizations, of the National Wholesale Grocers' association, the National Wholesale Druggists' association, the American

Health association and of other bodies will take part in the discussion of the subject.

The department on regulation of industrial corporations, of which

President Seth Low is chairman, will present a report which will contain recommendations of some general principles that it feels should be embodied in any bill passed to protect what is popularly known as the "Sherman anti-trust act."

The department of industrial economics will report on its plan for making an investigation of the industrial and social progress in this country during the last three decades and an inquiry into the theories and proposals of the different kinds of the United States and several foreign governments are represented by interesting and instructive exhibits showing the progress made in methods and contrivances for insuring the safety of industrial workers, employees in the transportation service, etc., and for promoting better sanitary conditions in the various industry and occupations. The American museum of safety has arranged for five prizes and medals to be awarded for best safety, life saving and health promoting devices in every industry. The United States government exhibit includes sanitary exhibits by the army and navy

The popular Irish Tenor, Fiske O'Hara at the Grand Tonight.

Fiske O'Hara, the leading delineator of Irish character on the stage at the present day, will be the attraction at The Grand Opera House tonight. "In Old Dublin," a romantic comedy in three acts will be the entertainment that Mr. O'Hara will spread for the delectation of local threepennygoers and from the reports of the performance, there is a treat in store for lovers of good, rational Irish drama, without ranting melodrama scenes and impossible characterizations. The play is from the pen of that veteran dramatist, Augustus Pitou, whose "Sweet Inisara," "A Romance of Athlone," and other delightful plays are still remembered with pleasure by theatergoers. Mr. Pitou has woven a story of love and intrigue that is full of the strongest dramatic situations and heart interest and in which Fiske O'Hara, for whom the play was specially written, has the best part of his whole career. The mountings of the play are unusually rich and there is one of the strongest supporting companies ever seen around an Irish star.

MUNICIPAL LIGHTING IN TOWN OF PITCAIRN

FROM MR. VAUGHT.

Municipal Electric Plant There In Operation Ten Years—Furnishes
Current at Maximum Price of 10 Cents, With 30 Percent off to Small Consumers—Porch Lights
Free.

Editor Journal:

I notice in a recent editorial you state that the new light plant will be built, if the bonds carry, according to the plans and specifications and under the direct charge of an expert engineer who is to be selected by a number of gentlemen whose names are given, mine being in the list. Virtually that would remove the responsibility of building the new plant from the commissioners to this outside body. But this is illegal. The commissioners cannot thus delegate their powers, even if they are so disposed. Furthermore recognizing as I do their personal and official responsibility, in my judgment, it is unfair to the commissioners to ask them to turn over to an outside body official business of this importance. If such an arrangement is attempted I foresee disagreements between these two bodies and in case of disagreement the commissioners, finally, must control and decide, as they legally should. Were I a commissioner I should shoulder full responsibility for my official conduct and I should refuse to delegate an official act to an outside body regardless of its composition.

Again: As I understand it the commissioners propose to build the new plant for $50,000. According to my understanding the expert employed by the chamber of commerce says it will take much more. Now if I select the engineer to build the plant and it is constructed under his plans and the final cost should be ten or twenty thousand in excess of the $50,000, I am to blame for the extra cost. I have no doubt the commissioners would say so and I would have a mighty hard time trying to explain why I was not. Commissioner Brennan says he can build the plant for $50,000. Possibly he can. Personally I am not going to assume the responsibility of the extra cost should there be any.

As my selection was because of the fact that I am a member of the public affairs committee of the chamber of commerce I have sent President Andrews my resignation as a member of this committee. I wish no one to vote for the proposed bond issue because of my name being connected with the proposition.

GRIPPE PREVALENT

How to Regain Strength After a Severe Attack.

With so much grippe prevalent this winter a few words of advice regarding its cause and treatment will not be out of place.

Grippe is an infectious disease easily taken when the system is in a tired or run-down condition.

The best means of prevention are to keep the blood in good healthy condition, and if the system gets into a weak, run-down condition, take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic.

A lady from Long Beach, N. J., says: "Grippe left me in a nervous, weakened, run-down condition. After taking three bottles of Vinol I am better and stronger than I have been for years, and I cheerfully recommend Vinol to all who have suffered from the grippe and need strength." (Name furnished on request.)

We have never sold in our store such a valuable strength creator and health restorer for the convalescent, the weak and run-down as Vinol, and your money will be returned if it does not do all we claim for it. —Lee P. Alcott, Druggist, Jacksonville, Ill.

COMMUTES SENTENCE.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 10.—Governor Dunne today commuted the sentence of Luu Lay, sentenced on a murder charge to life imprisonment from St. Clair county, to expire December 12, 1913.

What Additional Street Lights Will Mean

The present municipal street lighting plant has about 185 lights in service. The city appropriated $10,000 to maintain it last year, and this does not represent the total cost of municipal ownership, because the water department and other departments have admittedly done work for the light department without pay, the cost being borne by these other departments. Nor is the annual depreciation, amounting to several thousand dollars, included. This brings the real cost of operating 185 street lamps up to well over $12,000 a year.

On the other hand, the Jacksonville Railway & Light Company offers to light the streets of the city with 800 lamps—practically one on every corner in the city—for only $12,000 a year. This means over four times as many lights as the present municipal plant is supplying, without any increase in cost. Is it reasonable to suppose that the proposed municipal plant can supply four times as many lights as the present plant is supplying, and have it cost no more?

It may be said—and truly—that the lamps of the present municipal plant are of a different type from those proposed, and that the present lights consume more current than the ones that the company proposes to install. But go out West State street and look at the lamps at the corners of State and Park and State and Pine. These are the lamps—800 of them—which we will install and operate all night for $12,000 a year if the bond issue is defeated. Compare their CANDLE POWER with the actual CANDLE POWER of the arcs now supplied by the city plant.

We make it part of our contract that we will have new lamps installed and ready to light sixty days after the contract is signed. The city will then have 800 of the newest, most modern street lights obtainable, instead of 185 old style arcs as at present. It is up to the people to decide.

Mother's Friend in Every Home

Comfort and Safety Assured Before the Arrival of the Stork.

LETTER FROM LONDON.

By Associated Press.

While Battersea has been electing a colored man to be its mayor, the second time in the history of the country that a native of the West Indies has reached that position, some of the provincial towns have either declined or placed obstacles in the way of workingmen who aspired to the chief magistracy of their towns.

The most noticeable case of the rejection of a workingman candidate occurred at York. Here, as in all English cities, the mayor is elected by the city council and invariably the senior alderman is chosen. At York Alderman J. H. Hartley, the senior member of the board of aldermen, a railway shunter, was by all the precedents of the council entitled to the position and he was actually offered and had accepted it. When the council met to ratify the election, however, the Unionist members offered a candidate in his place and Yorkshire, where a workingman choice. This was in spite of a great mass meeting of the citizens calling on the council to adhere to its original decision. As a result the laborites throughout the country are charging the members of the York city council with a downright act of snobishness.

In other towns, notably Bradford, Yorkshire, where a workingman elected to the city council was dismissed by his employers, and Warrington, where the new mayor received similar treatment, certain classes have been showing their objection to workingmen gaining an ascendancy in civic affairs.

The colored mayor of Battersea is John Richard Archer. He is the son of a West Indian, but was himself born in Liverpool. His wife, who is colored, is a native of Canada. Mr. Archer was elected by the votes of the Progressive or Liberal members of the Battersea council.

The Rosyth naval base which England is building at immense cost to harbor her North sea fleet and better enable her to meet any attack from Germany, will be completed a year ahead of contract time.

Commenced in 1909, the contractors were given until 1916 to finish their work, but it is now announced that the base will be ready for use in 1915, although many additions have been made to the original plans. The original scheme called for a high level main basin covering 55 acres, with an entrance lock from the faraway enabling ships to pass out and in at all states of the tide; a dry dock 750 feet long by 110 feet wide; a submarine tidal basin; workshops and offices, and electrical power and pumping stations. To this was added another double dry dock and a third dry basin. Besides a new town is being built for a population of 30,000 persons.

The turbines for the new Cunard liner Aquitania, which weight about 14,000 tons and are of the largest ever constructed, comprise the latest ideas in marine engineering. Thousands of pounds were spent in experimenting, and full use has been made of the experience gained by the company in the construction and running of their other turbine ships, the Carmania, Lusitania and Mauretania. In the case of the Aquitania an exceptionally high degree of economy is maintained by passing steam successively through high pressure, intermediate and low pressure turbines to the condenser, instead of as formerly, direct from high to low pressure. This ensures more work from their other turbine ships, the Carmania, Lusitania and Mauretania. BURLINGTON ATTORNEY SAYS "NO" TO 'PASSES'

IS Against Transportation to Employees—Utilities Commission to Give Decision After January 1.

Employees of the Burlington railroad have been interested in the announcement made some weeks ago, to the effect that the company would discontinue the practice of issuing passes after January 1, or in the near future. The status of the pass question is clearly set forth in the appended dispatch from Belvidere, Ill., and explains the position of the Burlington attorney on the question:

"Local railroad men are prepared to fight an anticipated ruling by the state public utilities commission against the issuance of passes to railroad employees. They insist that they will not be deterred by any ruling which may be made by Attorney General Lucey, to whom has been referred the question of the validity of the passes under the new utilities act.

"The trainmen here are finding ground for hope in the fact that the Northwestern railroad has called for the old pass list of the employees, believing that the road agrees with the men in their intention to disregard the law.

"The 200,000 Illinois trainmen are not objecting to the law as much for their own sakes as for the sakes of their wives and families was the way one trainman expressed it today. We men don't use passes much anyway. But we consider it a downright hardship for our families to be deprived of passes. Moreover, it will constitute a violation of our working agreement with the roads, and we believe it will be invalidated on that score.

"While the attorney general and the state commission are withholding their opinion until the newly created commission takes office Jan. 1, the opinion of high railroad officials appears divided. John G. Drennan, general counsel for the Illinois Central, agrees with the employees that the new law never was intended to apply to the railroad employees, while Chester M. Dawes, general counsel for the Burlington, holds that it permits the men to ride free only when traveling strictly on railroad business."

ILLINOIS RELICS SOUGHT.

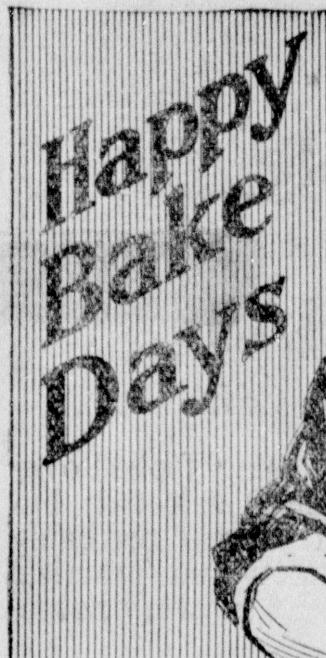

Centennial Commission Seeks to Preserve Moments of Pioneer Days.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 11.—Persons in possession of photographs, letters, documents, household articles, farm implements or other material relating to the pioneer days of Illinois are being sought by the Illinois Centennial commission. It is the idea of the commission to collect all the available material of this sort and place it in the reliquary of the Illinois state historical library or some other reliable agency that can be depended upon to properly preserve these moments. A magnificent display of early day souvenirs will be a feature of the celebration in 1918 of the one hundredth anniversary of the admission of Illinois to statehood.

It is known that valuable material of the character mentioned exists in every county of the state and the commission is anxious that persons in possession of such, or having knowledge of its whereabouts, communicate with them on the subject. The Illinois centennial celebration in 1918, of which the Centennial commission has charge, will be the most elaborate demonstration ever attempted by any state. Information regarding plans for the celebration or the collection of pioneer relics may be had upon application to any member of the commission.

LETTER FROM JAPAN.

Tokio, Japan, November, 30.—Absorbing interest attaches to the forthcoming session of the Japanese diet this month. The year has been momentous politically on account of the trouble in China and the passage of the alien land tenure bill in California. These questions are likely to be reflected in parliament. Anti-American speeches by chauvinists are regarded as not unlikely. Considerable uncertainty as to the direction internal politics will take lends additional attraction to the sessions of the assembly.

Japan's present government is conservative, but the masses throughout Japan are exerting a greater power in political life and their representatives in parliament will voice this tendency. The student class as evidenced by the recent attack before the foreign office over the Chinese question is making itself heard. The universality of education and incidentally the growing influence of the Japanese women are all things which must be reckoned with in determining the political future of Japan.

It is true that the conservative influence of the elder statesmen and of what might be called the reactionaries in general has steadily declined in charge from an oligarchy to a constitutional monarchy. But there is an old Japanese proverb which says: "Consult—if only with your knees." The Japanese is conservative and conservative by nature. At all times he reflects, consults, and weighs before making any decision. This fundamental trait in the Japanese character, together with the predominating reverence for the emperor and love of country are likely to prevent any plunge into dangerous radicalism, even if a new and more liberal cabinet should come into power.

There are today five different political parties or groups in Japan. It is difficult to designate these groups as "Conservative," "Liberals" or "Radicals," as one would in the west, because of the absence of essential differences in their platforms. All are fundamentally devoted to the consummation of true constitutional government. The truth of the matter seems that Japan's internal politics is undergoing a period of transition. In the case of politics it is from the oligarchical regime controlled by the elder statesmen, into true constitutional monarchy with party government. The new order of things is still in embryo. The political forces are there ready to be molded into definite form.

The most important group in the diet is the selyukai, which might be called the conservative party to Japan. It always takes a strong part in successive governments and is behind the present cabinet. The next in strength is the party founded by the late Prince Katsura, who believed that the Japanese ideals of government could be best subserved by introducing a strong two party system, representing the people and responsible to the emperor. His party platform was vaguely dedicated to attaining a truer constitutional regime by advancing the welfare of the people, especially in education. Many people believe that Katsura's death may mean the collapse of his two party idea and his party, as it was essentially a personal movement. The remaining parties include more or less radical groups known as the Kokuminto, and the Seiyu club, with the Independents voting at will.

More and more it is becoming evident, however, that the real political divisions in Japan are not these political groups, but Satsuma and Chosho. The men who built up the Japanese navy came from Satsuma province, and the creators of the army came from Chosho. These two great political forces are intensely active today, always overshadowing any of the political groupings referred to above.

Whatever may be the influence of the session of the diet upon the life or the present ministry, it appears probable that careful conservatism will be the keynote of Japan's foreign policy for some time to come and that Japan's attitude towards the United States will be based upon friendliness and co-operation. Above all, Japan seeks to expand her foreign commerce. To that goal, the opening of the Panama canal, she realizes is her great opportunity.

Ambassador Guthrie has made a fine impression upon the Japanese people, and has now settled down to the routine of his official position in Tokio. Under the auspices of the imperial court the ambassador was formally presented to high Japanese officials and his diplomatic conference at a brilliant function held at the American embassy.

There were present the high ministers of state, officers of the army and navy, masters of ceremonies, lord stewards, stewards and aides de camps to the prince of the blood as well as the complete diplomatic corps accredited to Japan.

Japan is preparing to make a better showing at the Olympic games in Berlin in 1915 than she did at Stockholm. Prof. Jigoro Kano, the founder of "Judo," which is an improved form of jiu-jitsu, organized after his return from Stockholm, an athletic association with a view to training athletes for the coming international contests. The new organization, which is called the Japan Athletic association, will devote itself to the encouragement of physical education among the rising generation of Japan. Special attention will be paid to the Marathon race, the 200 yard dash and the jumping contests.

To controvert the allegation of critics that Japan is in the throes of "hard times," and to reassure the public, K. Shoda, the vice minister of finance, has issued a detailed statement in which he contends that Japanese have no sound reason for complaint. Although some small trms in the big cities are in distress, he says it is largely because of commercial growth of Japan, means of communications being developed and modern department stores and other business systems established in the large towns and cities.

The only reasonable foundation for complaints of hard times, Mr. Shoda finds, is the fall of the Japanese negotiable bonds, due to the increase in their volume and to the depressed state of the money market. To counteract this the government has furnished the market with a large amount of funds.

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST

CLOTH THROUGH HAIR

Try This! Hair Gets Thick, Glossy, Wavy and Beautiful at once—Stops Falling Out.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is sraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff! cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it, surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it.—Adv.

MANDAMUS SUIT BROUGHT AGAINST COUNTY CLERK

City Seeks to Require Mr. Boruff to Spread Special Levy of $10,000 for Completion of Eighth Grade Building—A Friendly Proceeding to Meet Legal Conditions.

In the circuit court Thursday, City Attorney P. P. Thompson on behalf of the Board of Education filed a petition for mandamus directed against County Clerk C. A. Boruff with the purpose of requiring him as county clerk to spread upon the tax books the tax levy of $10,000 recently passed by the City Council on certification by the Board of Education. It is an entirely friendly suit but necessary in view of the circumstances surrounding the matter.

The additional money is required by the Board of Education for the completion of the Eighth grade building and for some repair work. The time for certifying the levy to the county clerk in the regular way has passed and Mr. Boruff while willing to aid in every legal way in having the desired fund collected, could not spread the tax upon the books without a court order. He told the board that he was ready to do all the extra work which will be entailed, the books having been completed some time since but that the proper course would be for him to decline to spread the levy and then for the city to bring the mandamus proceedings to compel him to do so. This proceeding will protect the clerk in every way and is the method which should be properly followed. Judge Thompson is expected to make an order today granting the petition and directing the clerk to spread the tax.

CHRISTMAS TREES FROM MAINE.

New York, Dec. 11.—The first Christmas trees from the state of Maine, mostly young spruce trees, have made their appearance in the local market and the docks near West street, where the coast steamers from Maine land their fragrant loads of holiday cheer, are loaded down with big stacks of the evergreen trees which fill the surrounding atmosphere with the balsamic odor of the pine woods. From the dock the trees are distributed all over the city to the various markets and other retailers. Maine contributes the bulk of the Christmas trees used in New York city and it is estimated that nearly $2,000,000 are spent for these trees every year. As the cost of the trees to the wholesalers and shippers does not exceed $160,000, there is considerable profit to the business for them as well as for the retailers.

Allied with the Christmas tree business is the trade in holly, laurel and mistletoe. These important features of Christmas season decorations come principally from Maryland, Virginia and North and South Carolina. Cape Cod also furnishes a considerable quantity of these greens for the New York and Boston markets.

VACCINATION FOR TYPHOID FEVER SHOWS GOOD RESULTS

Reports Published By War Department Indicate How Successful New Method of Combating This Disease Has Been—Some Comparative Figures.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 11.—Compulsory vaccination for the prevention of typhoid fever in the United States army has given the country practically an "immunized" fighting force, but one case of the disease making its appearance during the first 11 months of 1913, according to reports just obtained from the office of Surgeon General Torney, of the war department. The one soldier became ill during November but five days after he had enlisted and before he had been immunized. In no other army is anti-typhoid vaccination mandatory. So efficacious has been the treatment in the army that the navy has adopted the precedent and it is today immunized with vaccine prepared in the laboratory of the army medical school.

RECORD IS REMARKABLE.

In commenting on the record for the first 11 months of 1913, Alton G. Grinnell, of the office of the surgeon general of the war department, in a communication to the National Geographic society, says: "This record, compared with that of any year previous to the beginning of vaccination, seems little short of miraculous." He enclosed the following table of statistics, showing the incidence of typhoid in the United States army from 1903 to 1913, which tells the story in a nutshell:

Five years prior to 1908 (average per year), 169.

Two years after vaccination had begun (1911), 44.

Three years after vaccination had begun (1912), 18.

Since 1908 a prodigious amount of work has been accomplished.

Mr. Grinnell goes on to say: "The various steps in the production of each dose of vaccine have been as carefully supervised as though it was to be used upon the president of the United States. Before it leaves the laboratory, it is tested upon guinea pigs, and the statistics above quoted show the results of this painstaking care. Large quantities have been furnished to the various departments of the government, to the militia, and to a number of civil institutions. As soon as its success was assured the large drug firms of the country sent representatives to Washington to learn the formula and to study the process of manufacture. The same vaccine is now prepared by these firms and sold to the medical profession of the country at a reasonable rate."

CAN PREVENT EPIDEMICS.

Mr. Grinnell paints an encouraging picture when he says, "As the typhoid bacillus can live but a limited time in water, soil and other substances, it is obvious that if new pollution is not added from time to time epidemics will be prevented. The general use of the prophylactic will, probably, extinguish the disease since the vaccination of an entire community absolutely prevents the 'carriers' and all others from giving off the typhoid bacilli, and the focus from which new infection would ordinarily radiate is eliminated."

The United States reclamation service decided to use the typhoid prophylactic early in the year among its field force, which is scattered over a large area in the west. It was not made compulsory, but circulars were sent to the various camps describing the treatment and the results obtained in the army. One of the circulars contained the following ingenious pronouncement: "Typhoid fever can be prevented. You can aid by being vaccinated. Prevention beats the physician and undertaker. Healthy persons may have typhoid tomorrow. Only those vaccinated or those who have had typhoid are immune. Immunity lasts three years. Don't hesitate. Volunteer today."

"Over 500 persons volunteered for the treatment. Shortly after this an epidemic of typhoid fever broke out in the town of Malta, Montana, most of the cases developing in a hotel, where four of the reclamation service men were taking their meals. Of these four one had refused to be vaccinated, one had had typhoid fever and two were immunized by vaccination. The unvaccinated man contracted a severe case of the disease, the other three escaping. The sequel was that the townpeople made arrangements to secure a supply of the vaccine."

ILLINOIS GUARD

The re-organization of the Illinois National Guard on the lines ordered by the war department in Circular No. 8 has been discussed by Governor Dunne with Adjutant General Dickson and the adjutant general will work out the plans for the re-organization. QUICK RELIEF

FOR RHEUMATISM.

George W. Koon, Lawton, Mich., says: "Dr. Detchon's Remedy for Rheumatism has given my wife wonderful benefit for rheumatism. She could not lift hand or foot, had to be lifted for two months. She began the use of the remedy and improved rapidly. On Monday she could not move and on Wednesday she got up, dressed herself and walked out for breakfast." Sold by P. Allcott, druggist.—Adv.

RHEUMATISM AND

BRIGHT'S DISEASE

Prof. Budlong was quickly relieved of both afflictions by using Rheuma.

If you suffer from any form of Rheumatism, remember that RHEUMA goes to work quickly to remove the cause, not simply to relieve the distress. Many years' use has demonstrated that it goes to the seat of the disease and expels the poisonous matter through the natural channels—the kidneys, bowels, liver and skin.

For many years I was troubled with Rheumatism, also with Bright's Disease of the Kidneys. I suffered awfully. Tried many advertised remedies. After using your truly remarkable preparation, RHEUMA, I was fully cured."—Prof. C. J. Budlong, Sound View, Conn.

RHEUMA is guaranteed and sells for 50 cents a bottle by druggists everywhere.—Adv.

GOV. DUNNE OPPOSED TO TEACHING SEX HYGIENE

State Executive Thinks That Subject and Eugenics Have no Place in School Curriculums.

In a letter which Gov. Dunne recently addressed to President James of the University of Illinois and which has just been made public the governor clearly defines his opposition to the teaching of sex hygiene and eugenics in the public schools.

The letter is as follows:

"Springfield, Ill., Oct. 18, 1913.

Dear President James:

"Yours of the 15th instant has been placed before me on my return from Hannibal, Missouri.

"As to the first resolution proposed, to-wit: 'Resolved, That it is the sentiment of the Board of Trustees of the University of Illinois that as feasible a public health laboratory shall be established in the university which shall co-operate as best it may with all the forces now directed to combatting human disease,' you may record me as voting 'no.'

"With reference to the second resolution, to-wit: 'Resolved, further, That such instruction in sex hygiene should be given in the School of Education and in the College of Medicine of the University of Illinois as may enable teachers in the public and private schools of the state to acquire the information necessary to enable them to give suitable instruction and guidance in this delicate and important subject,' you may record me as voting 'no.'

"Modesty is the chief charm of womanhood. The moral teachings of the Christian religion, if impressed upon the youth of the country in the home, are the surest guarantee of the preservation of chastity and moral cleanliness in the minds of the young.

"I honestly fear that if sex hygiene be taught in the schools and young boys and girls in the open class room are made aware of things which may be taught in the line of sex hygiene, it may create, and will probably will create, in their young minds a prurient curiosity which will induce, rather than suppress, immorality and unchastity.

"Personally, I would not permit my young and innocent daughters to be sent to either a public or private school where sex hygiene is discussed in public, in their hearing and in the hearing of children of their tender age.

"I think you

KILL DOGS SUFFERING FROM DUMB RABIES

The killing of four dogs in the day suffering from dumb rabies would indicate that too much care cannot be exercised with regard to dogs and children. The dogs lived in the south and west parts of Jacksonville and were put out by the way at the request of their owners.

Dogs suffering from this species of the disease are not so dangerous as victims of ordinary rabies as their jaws grow rigid and they can bite only with extreme difficulty. When infected the dogs are said to lick themselves continually in the first stages of the disease. Later, their jaws grow rigid and the lower one protudes, giving the animal a strange appearance.

MR. WALTER GRANT IS MARRIED IN HOLLYWOOD, CALIFORNIA

Former Jacksonville Resident and Miss Emma Rennow Wedded in Pretty Home Rita—Will Reside in Hollywood.

The marriage of Walter Grant, formerly of Jacksonville and Miss Emma Rennow took place November 28 at the home of the bride in Hollywood, Cal., the Rev. Lloyd Darsie of the Christian church officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Grant will be home to their friends at 1350 Fielding street, Hollywood. The wedding, which was a pretty home affair, is described as follows by the "Hollywood Citizen."

One of the most beautiful weddings of the season came as a surprise on Tuesday evening to the many friends gathered to attend a reception given by Miss Emma Rennow of 1350 Fielding avenue, in honor of Mr. W. T. Grant, Mr. G. W. Grant and Miss Margaret Padgett of Chicago, Ill. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Sterigere assisted in receiving the guests.

A fine program of musical numbers and readings was given, during which time the hostess and one of her guests mysteriously disappeared.

Mrs. J. E. Clark then rendered "O, Promise Me," during which there was a murmur of expectancy in the air, which changed to a solemn hush as Mrs. Huff began playing the strains of "Lohengrin's Wedding March."

Then appeared Miss Margaret Padgett as bridesmaid, with Mr. Paul Sterigere as the groom's best man. They took their place in front of the fireplace which was banked with pink and white chrysanthemums and greenery.

Before the astonished eyes of her many friends, Miss Emma Rennow the bride, appeared leaning on the arm of Mr. Walter Grant, the groom. After taking their places the lights were turned out and the marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Lloyd Darsie, of the Christian church in the soft glow of the candle light.

Miss Rennow was a charming bride attired in a beautiful gown of soft gray crepe de chene trimmed with shadow lace. She carried a bouquet of roses and ferns, which was tossed and caught by Miss Sarah Clark.

After showers of congratulations dainty refreshments were served.

The bride's table had a handsome centerpiece of roses and ferns, over which hung a canopy of smilax with strands reaching to the corners of the table.

All the rooms were effectively decorated with roses, carnations, chrysanthemums and greenery.
